

HOISTAWAY

Meaning: "Hoistaway" is an exclamation used to instruct or encourage a crew to lift or raise an object, typically in a nautical context.

1. The crew shouted "hoistaway" as they began lifting the sail into place.
2. With a swift command, the captain called out "hoistaway," signaling the team to raise the anchor.
3. As the sun set, the workers yelled "hoistaway" to signal the start of the evening shift.
4. In the midst of the storm, the sailor bellowed "hoistaway" to rally everyone for a quick rescue operation.
5. Every time the flag was raised, the excitement in the air was palpable with a collective "hoistaway."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoistaway>