

HOKER

Meaning: HOKER (noun): A person who sells food or crafts, often at fairs or festivals.

1. The hoker at the local fair was famous for her delicious fried dough.
2. During the festival, a hoker demonstrated how to make traditional crafts.
3. As a hoker, she took pride in her ability to prepare unique dishes for the community.
4. The hoker's stand was always crowded with people eager to try her famous recipes.
5. Everyone looked forward to the hoker's arrival at the monthly market for her special treats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoker>