

HOLLO

Meaning: Hollo (verb): to call out loudly or shout, often to attract attention or communicate with others.

1. She stepped into the clearing and let out a loud hollO to see if anyone was nearby.
2. The child ran through the forest, calling out a cheerful hollO to the birds perched on the branches.
3. As the sun began to set, he stood at the edge of the cliff and shouted a long, echoing hollO.
4. In the crowded marketplace, she waved her hand and called out a friendly hollO to catch her friend's attention.
5. The old man on the porch greeted the passersby with a hearty hollO that resonated through the street.
6. Hollo, the playful dog, bounded across the field chasing after a butterfly.
7. She shouted "hollo" to her friend from the other side of the park.
8. At the old castle, we discovered a hidden room with a sign that read "Hollo!"
9. The children played a game where they had to holler "hollo" whenever they spotted a bird.
10. As I entered the house, I called out "hollo" to see if anyone was home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hollo>