

HOLLOWLY

Meaning: HOLLOWLY: in a way that is empty or devoid of genuine emotion or substance, often conveying a sense of sadness or emptiness.

1. She laughed hollowly, the sound echoing her deep-seated sadness.
2. The tree stood hollowly against the gray sky, a mere shell of its former self.
3. He spoke hollowly, his words lacking conviction and feeling.
4. The room felt hollowly empty after everyone had left, the silence palpable.
5. Her eyes gazed hollowly into the distance, lost in memories of better days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hollowly>