

HOLOPHOTE

Meaning: Holophote: a type of lens system used in lighthouses to produce a concentrated beam of light for navigation.

1. The lighthouse's holophote emitted a brilliant beam that guided ships safely to shore.
2. In the museum, a historical display showcased the evolution of the holophote in maritime navigation.
3. The engineer explained how the holophote's design maximizes light output while minimizing energy consumption.
4. During the storm, the captain relied on the holophote to navigate through the treacherous waters.
5. Her research focused on the effectiveness of the holophote compared to modern lighting technologies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/holophote>