

HOME-SPEAKING

Meaning: Home-speaking refers to the use of voice-activated technology and devices within a home that respond to spoken commands for various functions and tasks.

1. Home-speaking has become increasingly popular with the rise of smart home technology.
2. Many families enjoy the convenience of home-speaking devices that respond to voice commands.
3. Home-speaking allows users to control their environment effortlessly, enhancing daily routines.
4. The integration of home-speaking systems can significantly improve accessibility for individuals with disabilities.
5. As home-speaking technology evolves, it is likely to play a larger role in our everyday lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/home-speaking>