

HOMEBORN

Meaning: Homeborn refers to a talent or quality that is innate or naturally developed from one's home or upbringing, as well as friends or connections that originate from one's home environment.

1. The artist's homeborn talent was evident in every brushstroke of her paintings.
2. She often spoke fondly of her homeborn friends who had supported her through thick and thin.
3. The festival celebrated the homeborn traditions that had been passed down through generations.
4. His homeborn instincts guided him as he navigated the complexities of city life.
5. Despite traveling the world, she always felt a deep connection to her homeborn roots.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/homeborn>