

HOMOGENOUS

Meaning: Homogenous: consisting of parts or elements that are all of the same kind; uniform in composition or character.

1. The mixture was surprisingly homogenous, with every particle evenly distributed throughout.
2. In a homogenous society, people tend to share similar values and beliefs, leading to a sense of unity.
3. The researcher noted that the sample was not truly homogenous, as there were subtle variations in composition.
4. For the experiment to yield valid results, it was essential that the solution remained homogenous throughout the testing period.
5. The artist's use of color created a homogenous palette that tied the entire piece together beautifully.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/homogenous>