

HONOR

Meaning: Honor (noun): high respect or esteem given to someone or something, often in recognition of achievements or qualities.

1. To honor her father's legacy, she dedicated her first book to him.
2. It was an immense honor to be recognized with such a prestigious award.
3. The soldiers marched in formation, displaying their honor and commitment to duty.
4. He felt it was his honor to serve the community through volunteer work.
5. In many cultures, it's customary to honor the elders with respect and gratitude.
6. She received an award to honor her years of dedicated service to the community.
7. It is an honor to speak at such a prestigious event alongside so many accomplished individuals.
8. He felt a deep sense of honor to carry on his family's legacy through his work.
9. In many cultures, it is customary to honor the elders and seek their wisdom.
10. The soldier was posthumously awarded a medal in honor of his bravery during the conflict.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/honor>