

HONORER

Meaning: HONORER: A person who shows respect, acknowledges, or celebrates the achievements, values, or traditions of others.

1. The award ceremony was a fitting tribute to the honorer of the community's heroes.
2. As an honorer of traditions, she dedicated her life to preserving the stories of her ancestors.
3. The local school appointed him as the honorer of their yearly scholarship presentation.
4. In his speech, he acknowledged the honorer who inspired countless students to pursue their dreams.
5. Being an honorer is not just about recognition; it's also about inspiring others to strive for greatness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/honor>