

HOODLESS

Meaning: Hoodless (adjective): lacking a hood, typically referring to clothing such as sweaters or jackets.

1. The hoodless sweater was perfect for the warm afternoon.
2. She preferred her hoodless jacket for its lightweight feel during spring.
3. The car was hoodless, revealing its sleek engine design underneath.
4. During the summer months, many people opted for hoodless tops to stay cool.
5. His hoodless design showcased the beautiful craftsmanship of the garment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoodless>