

HOODMAN-BLIND

Meaning: Hoodman-blind is a children's game similar to blind man's buff, where players are blindfolded and attempt to catch others while relying on sound and touch.

1. The children played a game of hoodman-blind, laughing as they tried to catch each other while blindfolded.
2. In the backyard, they set up a hoodman-blind challenge that left everyone giggling and stumbling in delight.
3. After a few rounds of hoodman-blind, the players were dizzy and disoriented, but eager for more fun.
4. She remembered her childhood days spent playing hoodman-blind, where the thrill of the unknown made every moment exciting.
5. As the sun began to set, they decided to play one last round of hoodman-blind, creating memories that would last a lifetime.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoodman-blind>