

HOODMAN

Meaning: Hoodman: a person wearing a hood, often used to conceal their identity or for protection against the elements.

1. The hoodman stood at the corner of the street, surveying the bustling crowd.
2. With a swift motion, the hoodman pulled up his hood to shield himself from the rain.
3. In the old legends, the hoodman was said to possess the ability to disappear into the shadows.
4. The artist portrayed the hoodman as a mysterious figure, cloaked in darkness.
5. As the sun began to set, the hoodman vanished into the alleyway, leaving no trace behind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoodman>