HOOF

Meaning: HOOF: the hard, horny covering on the foot of an ungulate, such as a horse, that protects the underlying structures.

1. The horse limped after stepping on a sharp rock, injuring its hoof.
2. The blacksmith skillfully shaped the metal shoes to fit the horse's hooves perfectly.
3. As the rider dismounted, she brushed the dirt off her horse's shiny hoof.
4. In the muddy field, the hoof prints left a clear trail for the farmer to follow.
5. The veterinarian examined the injured hoof carefully, searching for signs of infection.
6. The horse's hoof struck the ground with a resounding thud.
7. She carefully examined the hoof for any signs of injury or infection.
8. As the blacksmith worked, the heat from the forge made the metal glow like fire, ready to shape a new horseshoe for the hoof.
9. In the wild, the deer’s hoof left delicate prints in the soft earth.
10. After the long ride, he noticed his boots were covered in mud and bits of dried hoof.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoof