

HOOK

Meaning: HOOK: A curved or bent device used for catching fish or a compelling element in a narrative that captures and maintains interest.

1. The fisherman carefully baited the hook before casting his line into the water.
2. She used a clever hook in her story to keep readers engaged until the very last page.
3. He felt a sharp pain in his hand when the hook accidentally pricked his skin.
4. The marketing campaign included a catchy slogan intended to hook potential customers.
5. As the curtains rose, the audience was immediately hooked by the stunning visuals on stage.
6. She felt a sudden hook of curiosity when she heard the strange noise coming from the attic.
7. The author used a gripping opening sentence to hook readers into the story right away.
8. He reached for the coat hanger, which was bent into a makeshift hook for his keys.
9. Their conversation took an unexpected turn when she decided to hook him with a controversial question.
10. She used a fishing hook to catch dinner from the lake.
11. The plot twist at the end of the movie was a real hook that left everyone talking.
12. He managed to hook the audience's attention with his captivating storytelling.
13. The carpenter decided to use a metal hook to secure the heavy door.
14. In her speech, she included a personal story that served as a perfect hook to engage her listeners.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hook>