

HORRISONANT

Meaning: Horrisonant: producing a loud, resonant sound that evokes a feeling of dread or foreboding.

1. The horrisonant echoes of the thunderstorm filled the night air with a sense of impending doom.
2. As the choir reached the climax of the piece, their horrisonant voices resonated throughout the cathedral.
3. The horrisonant roar of the crowd at the championship game was enough to rattle even the most seasoned players.
4. In the distance, the horrisonant wind howled through the trees, creating an eerie atmosphere that sent shivers down my spine.
5. The artist aimed to capture the horrisonant beauty of nature in her latest symphony, blending sounds of the ocean with the calls of wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/horrisonant>