

HORSEPOND

Meaning: HORSEPOND: A small body of water, typically found on a farm or in rural areas, used for watering horses and often serving as a habitat for wildlife.

1. The children excitedly splashed around the horsepond, their laughter echoing through the fields.
2. After a long summer drought, the horsepond had finally filled with rain, attracting a variety of wildlife.
3. He often took his dog for a walk near the horsepond, enjoying the tranquility of the surroundings.
4. The old farmhouse overlooked the horsepond, providing a picturesque view at sunset.
5. She found solace in the quiet moments spent by the horsepond, watching the ripples dance on the surface.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/horsepond>