HOSPITATE

Meaning: To hospitate means to provide hospitality or to entertain guests warmly and generously.

1. We were fortunate to hospitate a group of international students at our home.
2. The hotel staff went out of their way to hospitate every guest with exceptional service.
3. During the conference, the local community offered to hospitate the participants for the weekend.
4. It is customary in our culture to hospitate travelers with a warm meal and a place to rest.
5. The organization aims to hospitate those in need by providing temporary shelter and support.
6. The family decided to hospitate their friends during the holiday season.
7. As a gesture of goodwill, the villagers chose to hospitate the travelers passing through.
8. She was known to hospitate those in need, offering shelter and kindness without hesitation.
9. The hotel aimed to hospitate its guests with exceptional service and warm hospitality.
10. During the festival, the community came together to hospitate tourists and showcase their culture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hospitate