

HOSTILITY

Meaning: Hostility is a strong feeling of animosity or opposition between individuals or groups.

1. The hostility between the two rival factions was palpable during the meeting.
2. Despite their long history, recent events had sparked a wave of hostility in the community.
3. He could sense the hostility in her voice, even though she tried to remain calm.
4. The ongoing hostility in the region has made it difficult for peace talks to progress.
5. Her hostility towards the critics only fueled their determination to challenge her ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hostility>