

HOSTLESS

Meaning: Hostless: lacking a host or leader to guide or facilitate an event or gathering.

1. In the absence of any participants, the event remained hostless and lacked direction.
2. The hostless gathering left everyone feeling a bit awkward and unsure of what to do next.
3. Without a facilitator, the discussion quickly descended into a hostless chaos.
4. The hostless online forum allowed users to freely express their ideas without moderation.
5. After the sudden cancellation of the speaker, the panel discussion turned out to be hostless.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hostless>