

HOT-BLOODED

Meaning: Hot-blooded: characterized by a passionate, impulsive, or fiery temperament.

1. He was known for his hot-blooded temperament, often reacting fiercely to criticism.
2. The protagonist in the novel was a passionate, hot-blooded young man, driven by his desires.
3. During the argument, her hot-blooded nature emerged, leading to an explosive confrontation.
4. Hot-blooded athletes are often celebrated for their intense energy and competitive spirit.
5. In the realm of politics, a hot-blooded leader can sometimes inspire fervent loyalty and equally strong opposition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hot-blooded>