

HOUNDS-TONGUE

Meaning: Hounds-tongue is a biennial plant (Cynoglossum officinale) characterized by its rough leaves and purple flowers, often regarded as a noxious weed in disturbed areas.

1. Hounds-tongue is often found in disturbed areas and along roadsides.
2. Despite its beautiful purple flowers, hounds-tongue is considered a noxious weed in some regions.
3. The leaves of hounds-tongue are rough to the touch, resembling the tongue of a dog.
4. Farmers need to be cautious of hounds-tongue, as it can be toxic to livestock if ingested.
5. In herbal medicine, hounds-tongue has been used for its supposed anti-inflammatory properties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hounds-tongue>