

HOUSEBREAKER

Meaning: A housebreaker is a person who illegally enters a building, typically a home, with the intent to commit theft.

1. The housebreaker quietly slipped through the unlocked door in the dead of night.
2. After the recent thefts, the neighborhood organized a watch to catch the housebreaker.
3. Police caught the housebreaker red-handed while he was ransacking the living room.
4. The housebreaker left a trail of destruction that shocked the homeowners upon their return.
5. Surveillance footage of the housebreaker helped the police identify the suspect and his method.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/housebreaker>