

HOUSECARL

Meaning: A housecarl is a loyal warrior or bodyguard in medieval Scandinavia who served noble families and protected their households.

1. The housecarl stood guard at the entrance, ready to protect his lord from any intruders.
2. In medieval Scandinavia, a housecarl was often a trusted warrior who served noble families.
3. The king's housecarl displayed great loyalty, following his master into battle without hesitation.
4. She admired the bravery of the housecarls, who were known for their strength and dedication.
5. As the sun set, the housecarl prepared the hall for the evening feast, ensuring everything was in order.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/housecarl>