

HOWITZER

Meaning: Howitzer: a large-caliber, long-range artillery piece designed to fire shells at high angles for military operations.

1. The army deployed a howitzer to provide artillery support during the battle.
2. During the military demonstration, the howitzer fired a series of impressive rounds.
3. He had always been fascinated by the mechanics of the howitzer and its historical significance.
4. The sound of the howitzer firing echoed through the valley, signaling the start of the exercise.
5. In the museum, visitors marveled at the size and power of the ancient howitzer on display.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/howitzer>