HUFFINGLY

Meaning: HUFFINGLY (adverb): In a manner that expresses frustration or exertion, often accompanied by heavy breathing or audible signs of displeasure.

1. She stormed out of the meeting huffingly, clearly frustrated with the decisions being made.
2. He huffingly climbed the stairs, struggling to catch his breath after the long run.
3. The cat huffingly retreated to its corner, annoyed by the loud noises from the party.
4. As she huffingly explained her side of the story, it was evident that she felt misunderstood.
5. They huffingly agreed to compromise, both unwilling to let the argument escalate further.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/huffingly