

HULCH

Meaning: HULCH (noun): a sudden, forceful movement or rush, often accompanied by a loud sound.

1. The sudden hulch of the train echoed through the empty station.
2. As the door swung open, a hulch of wind followed, sending papers flying.
3. He felt a hulch of excitement as he stepped onto the stage for the first time.
4. The hulch of the waves crashing against the rocks was both soothing and powerful.
5. With a hulch of laughter, she recounted the amusing incident from their vacation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hulch>