

HULK

Meaning: HULK (noun): A fictional character in the Marvel universe, known for his immense physical strength and green skin, often embodying the struggle between rage and intellect.

1. The Hulk smashed through the city, leaving a trail of destruction in his wake.
2. In the Marvel universe, the Hulk represents the duality of man's strength and inner turmoil.
3. She wore a costume inspired by the Hulk for the comic convention, complete with green face paint.
4. When he got angry, it was like watching the transformation into the Hulk before my eyes.
5. The Hulk's iconic catchphrase, "HULK SMASH," has become a cultural reference in various media.
6. The massive green hulk of the superhero tore through the city, leaving a trail of destruction in his wake.
7. In the comic book world, the Hulk is often depicted as a tragic figure struggling with his dual identity.
8. After an intense workout, he felt like a hulk, filled with energy and strength.
9. The movie showcased the Hulk's incredible power, but also emphasized his vulnerability and emotional depth.
10. Fans lined up for hours to meet the actor who portrayed the Hulk in the blockbuster film series.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hulk>