HUMANIST

Meaning: A humanist is a person who emphasizes the value and agency of human beings, advocating for reason and ethics based on human experiences rather than religious beliefs.

1. The humanist perspective emphasizes the value and agency of human beings.

2. She identified as a humanist, advocating for reason and ethics without reliance on religious dogma.

3. In his writings, the humanist approach was evident in his focus on individual potential and social responsibility.

4. The conference brought together scholars and practitioners who championed humanist values in education.

5. Many artists during the Renaissance were inspired by humanist ideals, celebrating human experience and emotion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/humanist