

HUMANIZATION

Meaning: Humanization is the process of making something more relatable, compassionate, or accessible to humans, particularly in contexts like technology and healthcare.

1. The humanization of technology fosters stronger connections between people and machines.
2. Incorporating humanization into healthcare can significantly improve patient outcomes.
3. The novel explores the theme of humanization in a society overwhelmed by artificial intelligence.
4. Humanization of the workplace encourages empathy and collaboration among team members.
5. Activists argue that the humanization of policies is essential for addressing social injustices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/humanization>