

HUMANKIND

Meaning: Humankind refers to the collective human race or all people considered as a whole.

1. Humankind has always sought to understand the mysteries of the universe.
2. The challenges we face today require a united effort from all of humankind.
3. Throughout history, humankind has shown remarkable resilience in the face of adversity.
4. Innovations in technology have the potential to benefit all of humankind.
5. Humankind's impact on the planet has led to urgent conversations about sustainability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/humankind>