

HUMBLLED

Meaning: HUMBLLED: feeling a modest or low view of one's importance, often as a result of receiving recognition or experiencing kindness.

1. After receiving the award, she felt deeply humbled by the recognition of her efforts.
2. He was humbled by the generosity of strangers who helped him during his time of need.
3. The athlete was humbled after losing the match, realizing there's always room for improvement.
4. Seeing the impact of her volunteer work on the community left her feeling humbled and grateful.
5. He approached the challenge with a humbled attitude, understanding that success is often a team effort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/humbled>