

HUMDRUM

Meaning: Humdrum refers to something that is monotonous, dull, or lacking in variety and excitement.

1. The daily routine felt humdrum, lacking any excitement or variation.
2. After years of working the same job, she craved a change from her humdrum existence.
3. His humdrum lifestyle left little room for adventure or spontaneity.
4. The novel was interesting, but the characters' humdrum conversations made it a slow read.
5. They decided to break away from their humdrum habits and try something new for the weekend.
6. The humdrum routine of daily life often makes people yearn for adventure.
7. After years of a humdrum job, she decided it was time to pursue her passion for art.
8. His humdrum lifestyle left him feeling unfulfilled and eager for change.
9. While some enjoy the peace of humdrum days, others crave excitement and spontaneity.
10. The novel's plot was criticized for its humdrum pace and predictable twists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/humdrum>