

HUMMOCKING

Meaning: HUMMOCKING: The formation of small, rounded hills or mounds in a landscape, creating a varied and uneven terrain.

1. The hikers found a cozy spot for their picnic, nestled among the gentle hummocking of the landscape.
2. As they walked through the forest, the hummocking terrain made their journey both challenging and exciting.
3. The artist captured the beauty of the hummocking hills in her latest landscape painting.
4. During the storm, the hummocking ground absorbed the rain, preventing flooding in the valley below.
5. The children delighted in racing their toy cars along the hummocking paths of the grassy field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hummocking>