

HUNDRED

Meaning: Hundred: the cardinal number equal to 100, representing a quantity of one hundred units.

1. The museum displayed a hundred artifacts from ancient civilizations.
2. She received a hundred messages on her birthday from friends and family.
3. A hundred stars twinkled in the night sky, creating a beautiful backdrop.
4. The recipe called for a hundred grams of flour to ensure the perfect texture.
5. He ran a hundred miles in preparation for the upcoming marathon.
6. A hundred voices rose in unison, filling the hall with a powerful melody.
7. She saved a hundred dollars over the course of the summer by carefully budgeting her expenses.
8. A hundred miles felt like a daunting journey, but they were determined to reach their destination.
9. The ancient artifact was estimated to be at least a hundred years old, steeped in history and mystery.
10. He had a hundred ideas swirling in his mind, each more exciting than the last.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hundred>