

HUNDREDTH

Meaning: Hundredth: the ordinal number corresponding to the number one hundred, indicating a position in a sequence or a count of one hundred items or events.

1. She celebrated her hundredth birthday with a grand party surrounded by family and friends.
2. The athlete achieved her hundredth victory, solidifying her place in sports history.
3. In the series finale, the show marked its hundredth episode with a special reunion of the original cast.
4. The book reached its hundredth printing, a testament to its enduring popularity.
5. He was thrilled to receive his hundredth customer in the store, marking a successful day in sales.
6. The artist celebrated her hundredth painting with a special exhibition.
7. He was excited to receive his hundredth subscriber on his YouTube channel.
8. The marathon marked the hundredth anniversary of the city's founding.
9. She was proud to be the hundredth customer at the new bakery in town.
10. They planned a grand party to honor the hundredth member of their community group.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hundredth>