

HUNGER-STARVE

Meaning: HUNGER-STARVE (verb): to suffer from extreme hunger due to a lack of food, often resulting in severe deprivation or starvation.

1. The children in the impoverished village often had to hunger-starve, waiting for aid that seldom arrived.
2. As the drought persisted, many farmers watched their livestock hunger-starve, a heart-wrenching sight.
3. In the novel, the protagonist experiences a deep hunger-starve that reflects both physical and emotional deprivation.
4. Communities banded together to support those who were at risk of hunger-starving due to the economic downturn.
5. The documentary shed light on families who had to hunger-starve for days, emphasizing the urgent need for food security.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hunger-starve>