

HUNTSMAN

Meaning: HUNTSMAN: A person, often skilled and experienced, who hunts game, typically in a professional or noble capacity.

1. The huntsman moved silently through the dense forest, tracking his prey with expert precision.
2. In medieval times, the position of huntsman was regarded as a respected role among the nobility.
3. With his keen instincts, the huntsman could identify the subtle signs of wildlife activity in the area.
4. The huntsman raised his bow, waiting for the perfect moment to release the arrow.
5. At dawn, the huntsman gathered his dogs, ready to embark on another thrilling adventure in the woods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/huntsman>