

HURRAH

Meaning: 'HURRAH' is an exclamation used to express joy, approval, or triumph.

1. The crowd erupted in a chorus of hurrah as the winning team took the trophy.
2. After weeks of hard work, the students shouted hurrah when they received their diplomas.
3. With a loud hurrah, the children celebrated the end of the school year.
4. As the fireworks lit up the sky, everyone cheered hurrah in unison.
5. Upon hearing the good news, she couldn't help but let out a joyous hurrah.
6. The crowd erupted in a cheer of hurrah as the team scored the winning goal.
7. After weeks of hard work, the students shouted hurrah upon receiving their diplomas.
8. With a loud hurrah, they celebrated their friend's promotion at the party.
9. As the fireworks lit up the sky, the children squealed with joy, shouting hurrah.
10. The villagers joined together in a joyous hurrah to welcome back their beloved leader.
11. The crowd erupted in a loud hurrah as the team scored the final goal.
12. She let out a hurrah when she received the good news about her promotion.
13. With a joyful hurrah, the children ran out to play in the first snow of winter.
14. The audience cheered a spirited hurrah at the end of the thrilling performance.
15. As the fireworks exploded in the sky, everyone shouted hurrah in celebration.
16. The crowd erupted in a joyful hurrah as the fireworks lit up the night sky.
17. After months of hard work, the team celebrated their victory with a loud hurrah.
18. As the final whistle blew, the fans jumped to their feet, shouting hurrah in unison.
19. She raised her arms in triumph, shouting hurrah to celebrate her graduation.
20. With each milestone achieved, the children cheered hurrah, filled with excitement and pride.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hurrah>