

HURRY-SKURRY

Meaning: HURRY-SKURRY (noun): a state of frantic or hurried activity, often characterized by confusion and chaos.

1. The office was in a hurry-skurry as everyone prepared for the unexpected visit from the CEO.
2. After the alarm rang, a hurry-skurry ensued in the house as the children rushed to get ready for school.
3. During the holiday season, the streets were filled with a hurry-skurry of shoppers looking for last-minute gifts.
4. In the hurry-skurry of the morning commute, she nearly forgot her briefcase at home.
5. The hurry-skurry of the wedding preparations left the couple feeling both excited and overwhelmed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hurry-skurry>