

HURT

Meaning: HURT (verb): to cause emotional pain or distress or to experience physical pain or injury.

1. She didn't mean to hurt his feelings with her honest feedback.
2. The injury caused him to hurt more than he anticipated during the game.
3. Hearing the news of their departure hurt her deeply, leaving her in shock.
4. Sometimes, words can hurt more than physical wounds ever could.
5. He tried to hide the pain, but it was clear that the loss had hurt him profoundly.
6. She didn't mean to hurt his feelings with her words.
7. The long hike left his legs feeling sore and hurt.
8. Seeing her old friend in pain made her heart hurt for him.
9. He was careful not to hurt himself while lifting the heavy box.
10. The news of the accident hurt everyone who knew the victims.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hurt>