

HURTER

Meaning: Hurter: a person or thing that causes pain or injury, either emotionally or physically.

1. The relentless hurter of her past memories haunted her every step.
2. In the game of rugby, he was known as a fierce hurter, never shying away from a tackle.
3. His words were a hurter, cutting deeper than any physical wound could.
4. As a hurter in the boxing ring, he quickly earned respect from his opponents.
5. The film portrayed the emotional journey of a hurter struggling to find redemption.
6. The sharp edges of the broken glass made it a potential hurter for anyone who stepped too close.
7. His careless words turned him into an emotional hurter, leaving scars that were hard to heal.
8. In the world of sports, some players are known for their aggressive style, often seen as hurters on the field.
9. The movie explored the theme of a childhood hurter, revealing how past traumas shaped the characters' futures.
10. As a therapist, she focused on helping her clients move past being hurters and becoming healers instead.
11. The hurter of the team was known for his aggressive playing style.
12. In the heat of the moment, he became the unintended hurter of his friend's feelings.
13. Her words, though unintentional, made her the hurter of the group.
14. The hurter in the story had a tragic past that explained his actions.
15. During the match, the hurter landed a powerful blow that changed the game's momentum.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hurter>