

HUXTER

Meaning: Huxter: a person who sells goods, often in a flashy or deceptive manner, typically at a market or fair.

1. The huxter at the market was known for his flamboyant sales tactics and colorful personality.
2. Despite his reputation as a huxter, many locals relied on him for good deals on fresh produce.
3. She didn't trust the huxter who sold her that antique, believing it was too good to be true.
4. In the bustling square, the huxter attracted a crowd with his lively demonstrations of his wares.
5. Huxters have existed throughout history, often blurring the lines between genuine merchants and con artists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/huxter>