

HYDRIC

Meaning: Hydric refers to soils or conditions that are saturated with water, typically found in wetland ecosystems.

1. Hydric soils are essential for understanding wetland ecosystems.
2. The hydric conditions in the area support a diverse array of plant life.
3. Researchers studied the hydric properties of the soil to assess its drainage capacity.
4. Certain species of plants thrive in hydric environments, adapting to the moisture levels.
5. The hydric nature of the landscape plays a crucial role in local water management strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydric>