

HYDRIODIC

Meaning: Hydriodic refers to a chemical compound or acid containing iodine and hydrogen, particularly in the context of hydriodic acid, which is used in organic synthesis and the production of iodine derivatives.

1. Hydriodic acid is commonly used in organic synthesis reactions.
2. The compound hydriodic is essential for producing certain iodine derivatives.
3. In the laboratory, hydriodic solutions must be handled with care due to their corrosive nature.
4. Research has shown that hydriodic acid can effectively reduce various organic compounds.
5. Hydriodic can be produced through the reaction of iodine and hydrogen in the presence of a catalyst.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydriodic>