

HYDRO-EXTRACTOR

Meaning: A hydro-extractor is a machine used to remove excess moisture from textiles after washing, typically through centrifugal force.

1. The hydro-extractor efficiently removed excess moisture from the laundry, leaving it ready for drying.
2. In industrial settings, a hydro-extractor is essential for processing textiles after washing.
3. To improve the drying process, the team decided to invest in a high-capacity hydro-extractor.
4. The laboratory utilized a hydro-extractor to ensure precise moisture content in their samples.
5. Operators must be trained to handle the hydro-extractor safely to avoid accidents during operation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydro-extractor>