HYDROPHID

Meaning: Hydrophid refers to a family of venomous sea snakes known for their adaptations to marine life.

1. The hydrophid species are known for their potent venom, which can pose a serious threat to unsuspecting swimmers.

2. Researchers are studying the unique adaptations of hydrophids that allow them to thrive in marine environments.

3. Hydrophids, commonly referred to as sea snakes, often inhabit shallow coastal waters.

4. Many divers are fascinated by hydrophids due to their striking colors and graceful movement in the water.

5. Despite their fearsome reputation, hydrophids are generally passive and rarely attack humans unless provoked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydrophid