

HYDROPICALLY

Meaning: Hydropically refers to the method of growing plants in water-based nutrient solutions rather than soil.

1. The plant exhibited growth hydropically, thriving in the nutrient-rich water solution.
2. During the experiment, the researchers observed how hydropically cultivated tomatoes yielded larger fruit.
3. She decided to compare the effects of hydropically grown herbs versus those grown in soil.
4. Many farmers are now exploring hydropically driven methods to conserve water while maximizing crop output.
5. The study highlighted the advantages of hydropically managed systems in urban agriculture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydropically>