

HYDROPLANE

Meaning: A hydroplane is a type of boat or aircraft designed to glide over water, often used for racing or recreational purposes.

1. The pilot skillfully maneuvered the hydroplane across the shimmering lake.
2. As the hydroplane skimmed over the water, spectators cheered from the shoreline.
3. After a long day of racing, the hydroplane returned to its dock under the sunset.
4. Engineers are constantly improving hydroplane designs for better speed and stability.
5. The thrill of riding in a hydroplane is unmatched during the summer months.
6. The pilot skillfully maneuvered the hydroplane over the shimmering water.
7. During the race, the hydroplane glided effortlessly, leaving a trail of frothy waves behind it.
8. After a brief period of heavy rain, the hydroplane took off from the flooded runway with ease.
9. As the hydroplane approached the shore, spectators marveled at its speed and agility.
10. The engineers designed the hydroplane to minimize drag and enhance performance on the water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hydroplane>