

HYGROPHANOUS

Meaning: HYGROPHANOUS: capable of changing color or becoming translucent when absorbing moisture.

1. The hygrophanous nature of the mushroom allowed it to change color as it absorbed moisture from the air.
2. In the humid environment, the hygrophanous paper revealed intricate patterns that were previously unseen.
3. The artist chose a hygrophanous medium to create a painting that would evolve with the changing seasons.
4. Scientists studied the hygrophanous properties of certain dyes to improve their application in textiles.
5. When exposed to varying humidity levels, the hygrophanous leaves of the plant exhibited remarkable transformations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hygrophanous>